MARKET & TARGET GROUP

SEGEL JOURNAL – moving sailors

Yachts, technology, nature and a very special lifestyle. Sports, adventure, challenges – but also hedonism, contemplation, deep satisfaction. Activity on board, during a race or on the wide oceans; but also maritime life along the coasts, in harbours and in places that are special not only to sailors – from Barcelona to Bermuda, Cowes to Casablanca, St. Tropez to St. Barthélémy and Kiel to Cuba.

This is the unique lifestyle, mirrored by SEGEL JOURNAL.

SEGEL JOURNAL offers the best entertainment in each and every issue, with informative background stories, analysis, reports and features. Presented, in form and content, according to the level with the demanding style of true connoisseurs.

The magazine contains of four main subjects: SPORTS, with gripping features from the world of global racing; YACHTING with both entertaining and to-the-point reviews of new yachts, with opulent features about outstanding yachts and cutting edge information about new developments in boats and equipment. TRAVEL with very readable but also practical features and reports on the popular and not so well known yachting destinations around the world, and SAILORS with all aspects concerning fashion, lifestyle and human interest – including profiles and portraits of celebrity sailors and other outstanding yachting personalities.

Emotion, fascination, information. SEGEL JOURNAL does not sail in the shallow waters of banality, is neither patronizing nor arrogant. We respect our readers deeply and invite them on board – for a fascinating tour through the wonderful world of global yachting.
